

We have enjoyed the time we have not be bothered by telemarketers. We hope the ruling will stay that we can maintain our privacy by not receiving such calls. We used to get at least a dozen calls a week or more and now none at all. Our family time in uninterrupted and for this we are thankful. Please take this into consideration.